THINGS WERE pretty nervous around the Lupe Torrez household on Jackson Street for a while after their son, Sterling, was bitten by a dog while playing in the Vista school playground. Unless the dog was found, the boy faced the painful pain series. From March 13 until Monday (the 24th), health and animal authorities and others searched for a small fluffy dog with a plumed tail. This Monday the dog was found. It had had its shots.

IF YOU like to see those racing broomsticks up close, Golden Fields has announced public workouts at the track from 10 to 10 a.m. They've also invited you to visit the barn area.

THERE WERE 37 people at a Chamber of Commerce breakfast Thursday at the Blue Mill. Berkeley Police Inspector Dave Johnson showed a movie of actual shoplifting (you'd be surprised some of the methods and hiding places) and demonstrated special fast change artists' monies. The breakfast meetings have been worthwhile from an educational standpoint as well as giving business people an opportunity to meet each other.

STURGEON, illuminating engineer for PG&E, told Soropists last Wednesday, among other things, that the objectives of street lighting are first to reveal and then to please. His talk is well-received by the few in attendance. JJ (incidentally, JJ's first name) was a good talk about everything, including a bit of catsup on his sleeve. Hearty recommend him to professional chairmen of other organizations.

FOR MORALE-BUILDING, there's nothing like the calls we get from people who didn't read the Times. There were so many two weeks ago, when we had a bit of mechanical difficulty, that we still feel all warm and moved. We love you, too.

MOST INTRIGUING mail received this week was an empty mail envelope from Guam with 50 cents worth of postage fixed thereon and stamped "received without contents at Oakland." Wonder what May Olson wrote about!

BETTY SILLANPAA, looking thin and shaky, stopped in my office the other day to report that while she was in Albany hospital for tests, she read in the Times that she was there for (Continued on Page 3)

Riki Lipe Art At City Library

Paintings by Riki Lipe are on exhibit at the Albany Library during the month of March.

Mrs. Lipe is self-taught and began painting five years ago. She is a native of the Missouri Ozarks and has lived on Guam. The artist states, "I try to paint landscapes from the places that I have been or from the places that I would like to visit. I have a great fondness for the outdoors and open spaces where there is a lot of sky and vastness."

Mrs. Lipe has exhibited at a downtown restaurant in Oakland. The artist has two sons.

Band Director Ernest Douglas says, "The band concert is a fine old American tradition — good pop music uninterrupted by commercials. The whole family will enjoy the color and sounds of this program and we hope everybody will come."

Following the band's program, there will be a reception for bandmen and their guests in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Marian Wolf and the Albany Band Boosters will be hosts.

Council Rescinds Action On Police Inspector

By a four to one vote, Albany City Council Monday night rescinded earlier action which deprived Police Inspector Arthur Smith of overtime pay and certain holiday pay.

Councilman Lewis Howell voted no on the motion, which came after much discussion and reading of a letter from Police Chief Ralph Jensen to the Council, objecting to their actions, and of the cover letter and portions of the Sargent report on accounting procedures.

Howell's objections, he explained are primarily as a member of the Finance committee, which places him in the position of watchdog of the city's funds. In his letter to Council, however, Jensen said one councilman (unnamed but obviously referring to Howell) had personal animosity toward him and Inspector Smith.

A memo from Smith showed that the Council's earlier action to increase his salary by $800 and eliminate overtime pay had actually reduced his income.

Howell said to this, "I can see no relief for the situation... we tried to give a fair executive salary and he thinks he is discriminated against... Members of our Police Department are excellent... doing a fine job with very poor leadership."

Councilman Joe Carlevaro said he thought "alring our laundry in public, especially at this time, is distasteful... Comments tonight are directed specifically at the chief and inspector. I think it is unfair to do this publicly... pretty shoddy..."

Mayor Richard Clark said he has long recognized weaknesses in the manner of accounting in various departments "I don't think it's the chief's fault. It's Council's fault." He noted that during racing season, the police have to cover both the track and the city.

"We can't exclude a man from working and then say they can't have extra help," Clark continued. "The Sargent report says there is bad accounting in all departments. We're working diligently to solve this. It's a little (Continued on Page 3)

Tom McLaren Seeks City Council Seat

Berkeley Civic Leader Tom McLaren of 80 The Plaza Drive is an independent candidate in the City Election Tuesday, April 1.

He was first to file for any of the five positions open on the City Council. A native of Berkeley and graduate of the University of California, he is the owner of Central Medical corporation in Oakland.

"Berkeley is my town," McLaren said. "I was born here and have lived here for 49 years. My effectiveness as a member of the Human Relations and Welfare commission (for three years) is far too limited to warrant my continuing service. If I'm to spend this much time and energy on trying to make Berkeley the kind of town I can be proud of, and happy in, I'd rather spend the time at the level where the final decisions are made—the Council level."

The much-honored Berkeleyan was urged by many citizens to run for Council. He said his supporters may be described as "longtime residents" whose politics seem best described as "moderate."

McLaren and his wife, Patricia, are the parents of three children, Ann, 20; Tom, 17, and Libby, 13.

'THE ODD COUPLE' OPENS IN EL CERRITO

It's belly laugh time at the Contra Costa Civic Theatre, El Cerrito, when cast and crew present Neil Simon's smash comedy hit, "The Odd Couple," which opened March 21.

Cast as that famed dynamic duo, purposefully free of their little women's clutches and determined to enjoy to the hilt the full bloom of the bachelor life, are George Meyer as Oscar, the concerted slob, and Louis Flynn as Felix, the compulsive "Mister Clean."

What do men do when they are footloose and fancy free? "The Odd Couple" tells it like it is in three hilarious acts featuring the antics of a group of poker-playing savants including Kenneth Berndt, Ben Levene, Dick Gray and Jack Leavitt.

When the ersatz bachelors penchant turns to things feminine, two kooky British femme fatales prance on the scene in the person of Barbara Lowry and June Boblitt. What happens to them in the bachelor-type purported den of iniquity is well worth the watching.

Charlotte Meyer has designed the intricate setting for "The Odd Couple," Louise Sullivan handles the endless properties and Richard Newhall has designed the lighting.

"The Odd Couple" will run Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30 through May 3, excepting Easter weekend. Reservations are available through 524-9132. Tickets are available at the theatre box office, Harding Auditorium, Fairmount and Ashbury Streets on performance nights and at Potrero Pharmacy, El Cerrito through the week.

Curtain time for all shows is 8:30 p.m. promptly, Friday and Saturday nights.

This 37-voice choir is traveling in this area as part of a 17-day tour of Oregon and Northern California. Director of the choir is Brian Gerald, director of music at Multnomah School of the Bible.

Multnomah School of the Bible is an accredited Bible institute in Portland, Oregon, offering a three-year diploma course for high school graduates, a three-year program leading to a Bachelor of Theology degree for students who present two years of liberal arts credits upon entrance, and a one-year Bible major for graduates of colleges and professional schools.

ALBANY BOWL

540 San Pablo Ave. 526-8818

That was news to everyone Wednesday. On Thursday, the Albany Times Union had a major surgery.

SENT up a "trial balloon" to see how the Albany Times Union's editorial board would react to a proposal for a "Third World Strike at Berkeley: Issues and Implications" at their monthly meeting, Wednesday evening, March 26.

George Napper, assistant to the vice-chancellor for academic affairs at the University of California, will speak to the Albany Democratic club on "The Third World Strike at Berkeley: Issues and Implications" at their monthly meeting, Wednesday evening, March 26.

George Napper received his bachelor's degree from Berkeley in criminology before serving as the director of the poverty program (OEO) in the Bayview-Hunters Point area. He returned to the university, received his master's degree and was on his way to a doctorate when he interrupted his program to accept his present post as Vice Chancellor Billingsley's assistant, a post which put him right in the middle of things when the strike came. Because of his position he should be able to provide a comprehensive picture of the events and their consequences. He has had close contact with both Third World students and the university and has been involved with the various negotiations that have taken place.

The meeting will be held at 746 Gateview Avenue, Albany, and will begin at 8 p.m.

He said that while the Finance committee can call an audit any time it wishes, he believed it should involve all departments, not just the Police Department.

Howell said there was no personal animosity behind asking for the audit. The problem of Smith's overtime had come to his attention two years ago, he said, and he had asked Turner to look into it. In addition, it had been discussed at several personnel sessions, Howell said.

At one point, Council discussed the possibility of publishing the Sargent report, which cost the city $800, Howell said he particularly wants the hours of overtime made public. No action was taken on the suggestion.

In other matters, Council:

APPROVED a request by Albany Municipal Employees association to have an actuary undertaken for the 1/60 at 60 formula for a pension program for non-uniformed employees and the offer to pay for the actuary; the Chamber of Commerce request for the mayor to proclaim this week "Albany Chamber of Commerce Week," five resolutions and an ordinance (see legal today).

SIRS Will Meet Today

East Bay branch of Sons in Retirement will meet at noon today at Spenger's to hear Walter Blumst, manager of Marketing Research and Services for Pacific Gas and Electric company, speak on "Economic Outlook from the Viewpoint of the Electric Industry."

SIRS Alley Bowling Chairman Ted Fairclough reports the group is "having lots of fun" every Thursday morning at 10 a.m., when they meet at Albany Bowl.
 Members of Sons in Retirement are welcome.

Fire Plug

Balmy spring weather always brings to mind the flying of kites.
 This is an enjoyable activity but there are dangers present when this is done by children in the city streets.

High powered electric wires present this menace when the kites become entangled. Parents should warn their children not to climb poles or even fly kites in the street area.

Kites should be flown in open areas such as parks or in the country. Adult supervision is also recommended.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

By Mimmie Ingraham
 The dinner the Seniors co-hosted with the Lions on Thursday, March 20, was a gustatory delight. The highlight of the evening was, of course, the surprise presentation of the beautiful plaque to a Lion with the big-est roar of them all. We refer to "Tiny" Kampe, and we were proud to be part of this well-deserved recognition to a man dedicated to Lionism. Since he is also our Senior Citizen president for this term, we feel justifiably honored at having witnessed this award.

Preceded by an eloquent introduction stating his many accomplishments and credits, Larry Saler presented Leon Rimov, consultant to the Bay Planning Commission, who showed slides of what can be done on the Albany (pardon the liberty) Marina. He stressed particularly man's affinity with water, and showed how development of this area would bring beauty to an otherwise neglected spot, and happiness in the ability to indulge in water sports, as boating, sailing, yachting, etc., while the shoreline meant space for picnics and playgrounds.

Knives are being sharpened for the Easter luncheon, with a comic hat parade and some professional entertainment in addition.
 Since this is for members only we urge early reservations. The whist party drew a record crowd, and many winners went home with exceptionally fine prizes.
 This event is open to non-members, so watch for the date and come join us for refreshments before the games. Or call 525-1601 or 525-5704 for more details.

There are some exquisite floral pieces on display, made in our craft class, also open to non-members.

We were grieved to report the passing of Frank Castle, husband of one of our members. It is so tragic to see the dissolution of such a devoted couple.

We should like to state here that the success of the Lions' dinner was due in no small part to the whole-hearted and able assistance given by our Jeanne Hadfield and Gertrude Garden, always willing and able to do "just a little more" to help out. Jeanne, through her professional experience, keeps things rolling along.

Reservations are being taken for the April trip, Spring Sojourn, and we anticipate a delightful trip to a man-made little town called, appropriately enough, Ald Town. Come have a Sunday sit-n with us, from noon to five, and we furnish the coffee.

ON USS HANCOCK

Navy Lieutenant Larry E. Kramer, husband of the former Miss Beverly J. Benson of Albany, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Hancock in Alameda. The 25-year-old carrier has just returned from an eight-month deployment in Vietnam, its fourth combat tour since the conflict began. During the deployment, the carrier's air wings flew approximately 10,000 combat and support missions and dropped over 9,000 tons of ordnance.

Albany High 12 To Hear About Regional Government

Albany High 12 club will hear "The Other Side of BARO" Friday noon, March 28, at Kirby's Restaurant, El Cerrito Plaza.

J. T. Ritch, general manager, Contra Costa County Development association, will present aerial photos describing industrial projects such as waterways developments. He will discuss the probable impact of the proposed "Regional Government of the Bay Area Law" (Assembly Bill 711).

"BARO" stands for Bay Area Regional Organization. Another, more familiar agency, is "ABAG" which is an association of city and county councilmen and supervisors concerned with a more effective coordination of problem areas. By any name, the question for taxpayers is the same—what sort of government and taxing authority do we want? How will that government and its directors be selected? Can a regional organization do more than the present regional entities, such as EBMUD or Regional Parks?
 Will it cost more?

Exchange Club Celebrating 85th Anniversary

Chuck Murray, president of the Albany-El Cerrito Exchange club, has designated this week's meeting as an Exchange club celebration of the national organization's 85th year in existence. The national organization was originally chartered on March 27, 1911.

After this celebration, the Albany-El Cerrito Exchange club will finalize details for their annual "Search for Talent" contest to be held this year at the Portola Little Theatre in El Cerrito on Friday, March 28, at 7 p.m. Previous turnouts for this contest have been overwhelming in participation and talent from local school children. This year's chairman, Mike Silva, promises an outstanding group of talent.

On Saturday night, March 29, the club will have its second trip to the Holiday Hotel in Reno. The proceeds from the last trip purchased a breathing machine that was donated to the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Contra Costa County. The co-chairmen of the trip, Lin Baker and Lloyd Cornelius, report that all 91 seats on the plane have been filled and the airline has reserved an extra plane to take care of the overflow. The proceeds of this trip will help defray the expense of a "Freedom Shrine" to be presented to one of the cities that this club represents in the national organization.

Launch Police Support

LOCAL SUPPORT POLICE COMMITTEE IS FORMED

Tom Tallerico of Albany today announced the formation of a Support Your Local Police Committee. The Committee is composed of local residents, businessmen and professional men in the community. Tallerico, a local pharmacist and native resident, has been named chairman.

According to Tallerico, similar committees have been organized in most Bay Area communities.

The purpose of the Support Your Local Police Committee is to:

1. Support and encourage our local police in the performance of their duties;
2. Support the concept of control over police authority at the municipal level and to resist the growing danger of a "Federal Police Force" through federal aid and grants;
3. Reject the establishment of "Civilian Review Boards" by whatever name they are called and to reject irresponsible harassment of the police by dissident, anarchist or subversive groups.

Tallerico said, "We are sick and tired of Communist agitators and some high public officials who treat the police as criminals and make the criminals out to be victims." Commenting on the overall picture he said "there appears to be a coordinated nationwide effort to demoralize and neutralize our local police and then use this loss of local police effectiveness as an excuse to create a national or Federal police. Such a police force would be a tool for oppression—a gestapo." In conclusion, he said, "Agitators who contend they are against an oppressive police, whether they realize it or not, are by their actions helping to create that very thing."

The Committee and its purposes have received the endorsement of Senators James E. Whetmore, Jack Schrade, John L. Harmer, H. L. Richardson, John G. Smith and Assemblymen Robert H. Burke, E. Richard Barnes,

Balkaneers Invite New Members to Dance

Membership is open to interested adults and teenagers 16 years old, or over. Younger children may join if their parents are members. There are no wallflowers, because you never need a partner.

Every Tuesday, from 8 to 10 p.m., there is a class at the Albany YMCA, 921 Kains Avenue, Albany. Every Friday, from 8 to 10 p.m. there is a class at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive, Orinda. Wilma G. Hampton will direct the same program at both places. Members may attend either group, or both. No dancing experience is necessary, and you may join at your own convenience.

142 Business Population Here

The business population of Albany, announces Herman B. Langner, manager of the Oakland office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., now totals 142 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. He said figures were obtained by a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1969.

Mr. Langner noted that this month Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., is sending requests for financial statements to almost three million businesses listed in the Reference Book. These statements are essential to the credit reports issued by the business information agency. The requests are sent to all businesses regardless of size, from the corner grocery to the million dollar manufacturer.

Because of the constant flux in the American business community, nearly 5,000 changes are now occurring daily in Reference Book data. Thus the multi-volume book must be re-issued every two months to keep up-to-date credit facts in the hands of manufacturers and wholesalers. The credit report which stands behind each entry in the Reference Book contains such information as the firm's current payment record, history, ownership, operation, financial stability.
